Travel light, work smart – the Aero Mini PC keeps your whole day within arm's reach.

The Aero Mini PC is the quiet, unassuming workhorse your office has been waiting for. Whether you're juggling spreadsheets, running a till, chairing video meetings or simply organising your home admin, this little machine takes it all in its stride. It packs genuine desktop responsiveness into a case so small it tucks neatly beside a screen, under a shelf or behind a display – leaving your desk clear and your mind focused.

A tidy solution for busy spaces

- Frees up valuable desk space without sacrificing performance
- Sips power rather than gobbling it, so it's gentle on your bills and the planet
- Runs near-silently, so you can think, chat and concentrate without fan noise

Naturally versatile

- Perfect for hotel reception desks, classrooms, clinic waiting rooms and shop floors
- Equally at home powering digital signage or a home office setup

- Connect dual displays for effortless multitasking – no more tab-juggling chaos

Everything included

- Ships with Windows 11 Professional, so you're ready to work from the first boot
- Comes complete with a Thinvent keyboard and mouse – no extra shopping required
- Robust dual-band WiFi keeps you connected, whatever the layout of your building

Designed to keep up

- The responsive Intel processor glides through everyday applications
- Solid state storage means fast startups and snappy file access
- Reliable construction and rigorous certification give you peace of mind for years to come

Choose the Aero Mini PC for a neat, dependable and refreshingly simple computing experience. It's the small change that makes a big difference to your working day.
