From boardroom to back office, power your business with zero compromises.

Stop making sacrifices on size or speed. The Thinvent Aero Mini PC proves that true industrial capability comes in a compact, professional package. It's the desktop you put where other computers simply can't fit – think crowded factory floors, retail checkouts sharing counter space, or a quiet corner of a medical practice.

Built for demanding, prolonged use, the all-new Intel Core i5 processor rips through intensive inventory databases, billing systems, or constant video streaming for digital signage. Your teams will feel zero frustration – applications load fast and can switch on a dime without performance headaches.

Don't let its modest footprint fool you. Finished in hardened powder coat with durable steel-ABS housing, it's physically constructed against bumps, heat, and the rough-and-tumble of British commercial sites. Keep the fans quiet and the operations constant; data flows freely with prolific dual-band WiFi, ensuring management never loses visibility.

Best of all, Windows 11 Pro reinforces real compliance for regulatory commercial use; encryption, rollout control and unified device administration make IT managers genuinely relaxed from day one. Physical links easily reach for old HMIs and new monitorarms equally – and USB charges peripherals for card readers, barcode drones or collaboration webcams directly overhead.

The Thinvent Aero shrinks valuable footprint waste. Downtime isn't part of your business vocabulary, so make a practical move for elegance – you invest for decades uptime, not specifications.

Get capable. Get simple. Get durable. Choose the straightforward throat for any productive cold environment now.
