Engineered for the relentless rhythm of industry.

Introducing the Neo H Mini PC

This is the high-performance evolution of our bestselling Neo model. Built as an industrial workhorse, it delivers formidable processing power to tackle demanding control systems and complex operational tasks without hesitation. Its robust, solid steel construction ensures unwavering reliability in challenging environments.

Why the Neo H is your operational cornerstone

- Experience formidable performance with our most powerful CPU configuration, designed to drive continuous industrial applications smoothly.

- Benefit from dual LAN ports for critical network redundancy and seamless integration into existing control infrastructures.
- Deploy with absolute confidence thanks to its 100% Indian design and manufacture, built to endure with a rugged, powder-coated steel chassis.
- Enjoy versatile connectivity with multiple display and USB ports, making it the central hub for your machinery and monitoring stations.

This isn't just a computer; it's a dependable partner for automation, process control, and dedicated industrial systems where failure is not an option. Choose the powerhouse built for the long run. Choose the Neo H.
