Small but seriously capable, the Thinvent Neo R/4 brings desktop-class performance to the tightest of spaces.

Built for the everyday demands of business

This Mini PC handles multitasking, office applications and light creative work with ease. Whether it is running a busy till system, powering a digital sign, or managing back-office tasks, the Neo R/4 keeps everything smooth, responsive and dependable.

A compact design that fits right in

No bulky tower, no tangled clutter. The Neo R/4 slips neatly behind a monitor, under a desk or into a wall-mounted setup, freeing up valuable workspace while still delivering the performance your team expects. Its robust steel housing means it can handle the bumps and knocks of a working environment, day after day.

Connected, secure and ready for the working world

With dual network ports and dual-band wireless, this Mini PC is made for environments where reliable connectivity matters. Connecting to a secure network, sharing files across a small office or linking to multiple systems is straightforward and stable. Windows 11 Professional comes pre-installed, so you get familiar tools, advanced security features and effortless management from the moment you switch it on.

Why choose the Neo R/4

- It turns under-desk and behind-screen spaces into productive workstations.
- It offers reliable, consistent performance for long working hours.
