Unleash concentrated performance from a desktop the size of a book.

Meet the Thinvent Neo R/4: the compact industrial powerhouse designed to drive your operations seamlessly. Its robust, steel-clad design houses the latest generation of efficient processing, delivering the reliable muscle you need for demanding environments without the bulk of a traditional tower.

Perfect for business-critical applications

- Deploy as a silent, space-saving digital signage controller for retail or corporate lobbies.
- Power a secure, dedicated point-of-sale or kiosk system with consistent reliability.

- Act as the central hub for IoT gateways or lightweight server tasks with its dual Ethernet ports.
- Run productivity and communication suites smoothly for office or classroom workstations.

Engineered for simplicity and control, it comes pre-loaded with our Thinix™ operating system, offering a secure and stable platform right out of the box. Manage it effortlessly with browser-based tools and enjoy built-in support for essential remote access and office applications. Complete with a matching keyboard and mouse, the Neo R/4 is a full, professional-grade computing solution that gets straight to work.
