Meet your new quiet achiever

The Thinvent Neo R/4 Mini PC slips neatly into any workspace, yet delivers the dependable performance your daily tasks demand. Whether you're running a busy reception desk, a factory floor, a clinic, or a shop floor, this little powerhouse keeps things moving without fuss or fanfare.

Why you'll love it

- It's compact enough to mount behind a monitor or tuck under a counter, freeing up valuable desk space
- The rugged steel housing shrugs off bumps, dust, and the odd knock, so it's happy living in demanding environments
- It runs cool and quiet, making it ideal for offices, labs, and customer-facing areas where noise is a no-no
- Windows 11 Professional comes ready to go, so you can plug in, log on, and get straight to business
- A wired Ethernet connection keeps your data flowing steadily and securely – perfect for businesses that can't afford wireless wobbles

- A full keyboard and mouse are included, so you're ready to work from the moment the box lands on your desk

Built for the working day

From digital signage and point-of-sale to light industrial control and office administration, the Neo R/4 handles everyday applications with ease. Its efficient Intel® Core™ processor means snappy responses to every click, without draining the electricity meter. And with room to connect your existing monitors, peripherals, and legacy equipment, you won't need to rip out your setup to upgrade.

The Thinvent promise

This is a machine designed to keep working – not a weekend project. It's certified, dependable, and backed by a brand that understands the demands of continuous operation. If you want a mini PC that simply gets on with the job, the Neo R/4 is your perfect partner.

Make the switch to compact, reliable computing today.
