Meet the little powerhouse that earns its place on any desk.

The quiet workhorse for modern workspaces

The Thinvent Neo R/4 Mini PC is proof that great things come in compact packages. Whether you're setting up a sleek office, kitting out a reception area, or upgrading a home workstation, this mini PC delivers smooth, responsive performance without cluttering your desk. Its sturdy steel casing shrugs off the bumps and knocks of daily life, while the whisper-quiet operation keeps the focus on your work, not the machine.

Made for the way you actually work

- Tackle spreadsheets, email, web browsing, and video calls with effortless ease.
- Connect dual displays for a productive multitasking setup that rivals far pricier towers.
- Keep your workspace tidy and professional — no more bulky cases hogging your floorspace.

- Rely on dependable Windows 11 Pro, ready to handle business software straight out of the box.

A complete solution, straight from the box

We've included a matching keyboard and mouse, so you're up and running within minutes. When you choose Thinvent, you're choosing a trusted brand backed by ISO and RoHS certifications, built to deliver lasting reliability for everyday business and home use.

The smart choice for savvy buyers

Why compromise on space or performance? The Neo R/4 gives you the best of both worlds — a compact, energy-efficient design that's easy to mount or tuck away, paired with the processing muscle to keep your day moving smoothly. It's the dependable, no-fuss partner your work has been waiting for. Make the switch to a smaller footprint and a bigger output today.
