Serious performance in a pint-sized powerhouse.

Meet the desktop that thinks big but lives small. The Thinvent Neo R/4 Mini PC slips discreetly into any workspace, yet carries enough punch to handle your busiest days without breaking a sweat. Whether you're running a front desk, managing stock, powering a digital sign, or keeping a small office ticking, this little machine keeps things moving with quiet, dependable ease.

Why you'll love it

- It takes up almost no space, leaving your desk clear for the things that matter
- Its sturdy steel casing shrugs off the knocks and bumps of everyday life, making it a perfect fit for shop floors, reception areas, and bustling back offices
- It runs Windows 11 Professional, so you get a familiar, secure, and productive environment from the moment you switch it on

- It comes complete with a Thinvent keyboard and mouse, so you're ready to work straight out of the box
- Wired networking keeps your connection steady and fast, ideal for tasks where you can't afford a drop-out
- The 10-core processor delivers responsive multitasking, so you can flick between applications, spreadsheets, and browser tabs without a hint of lag
- It sips power rather than gulping it, helping you keep running costs down and your carbon footprint lighter

Built to keep going through long shifts, the Neo R/4 stays cool and composed even when the temperature rises. It's the reliable, no-nonsense workhorse you've been looking for – ready to slot into your setup and get on with the job.

Why wait for a big, noisy tower when this compact champion does it all? Choose the Thinvent Neo R/4 and give your business the dependable boost it deserves.
