Powerhouse performance that slips neatly onto any desk.

The Thinvent Neo R/4 Mini PC brings serious computing muscle to your workspace without swallowing it whole. Whether you're running a busy front office, a control room, or a light industrial environment, this machine is built to keep pace with you.

Space-saving by design

Forget the bulky tower under your desk. The Neo R/4 sits quietly beside your monitor or tucks neatly into a rack, giving you back valuable room while delivering the kind of responsive performance that makes everyday work feel effortless. It's a tidy solution that doesn't compromise on capability.

Made to keep working

This is no fragile office toy. The steel housing is tough, powder-coated, and ready for the realities of a working environment. It handles the hustle and bustle of a shop floor or a busy reception area with ease, and its energy-efficient design means you can leave it running without a second thought.

Connectivity that works for you

Dual network ports give you flexible and reliable internet connections, perfect for secure setups, POS systems, or streaming data from equipment. Add dual-band WiFi and you're free to connect however suits you best, without the hassle of trailing cables everywhere.

Everything you need to get started

The Neo R/4 arrives ready to work. It comes with Windows 11 Professional for a familiar, secure, and productive experience, and includes a matching keyboard and mouse. It's a genuinely complete package – just plug in, power up, and get on with your day.

When you need dependable, compact computing that looks smart and works harder, the Thinvent Neo R/4 is
