Small wonder, big performance.

Meet the Thinvent Treo Mini PC: a compact powerhouse, briskly intelligent and quietly dependable.

You don't need size when you have substance. Perfect for the modern workspace where space is premium, this mini PC is bred to boost productivity. It's built to breathe life into your automated kiosks, immersive digital signage, or humble office setup. Experience smooth multitasking, snappy web browsing, and easy document work with LibreOffice pre-installed.

Forget the worry of noisy fans with its solid, sleek, aluminium chassis it naturally whispers heat away. But it does more than just cool. Slide it behind a monitor, bundle it on a factory floor or in a lively reception area it looks the business.

Imagine a device as practical as a cuppa chai on an early shift. Here arrives integrated wireless networking slashing messy cabling drama. RDP, Putty, and VNC thrown straight in you stay focused on empowering your staff, answering a service ticket, or rolling out the next big idea in the trade.

Here's our golden lead: 100% designed and made in India. Unparalleled local support with an international punch of advanced engineering. Every grainy, smooth stroke of its powder-coated Black house means supreme reliability plus classic good looks to flatter any environment.

Running dedicated Linux from the ground up targeted browsers via Chromium or Mozilla let you point teams in full flow. New memory sounds snug on paper at four gigabytes sweet enough for guided organisation daily for checkout screens else cloud sync apps fine.
