Your productivity, beautifully contained.

This isn't just a computer; it's your all-in-one solution for streamlined operations. The Thinvent Uno consolidates your entire workstation into one sleek, space-saving unit, eliminating cable clutter and maximising desk real estate for a cleaner, more professional environment.

Why the Thinvent Uno is your ideal partner

Reliable performance for core tasks

- Experience smooth, dependable operation for everyday business software, point-of-sale systems, and digital signage.
- Get to work instantly with fast boot-ups from solid-state storage, keeping your focus on the task at hand.

Built for the long haul in demanding settings

- Its robust, all-metal construction is designed to withstand the rigours of a factory floor, warehouse, or busy retail counter.
- The height-adjustable stand ensures perfect ergonomic positioning for any user, reducing strain during long shifts.

Simplify your setup and enhance security

- Enjoy a clutter-free desk with integrated components and a simplified cabling system powered by a single adapter.
- The secure, open-source Ubuntu Linux operating system provides a stable platform resistant to common viruses, minimising downtime.
