Engineered for enduring performance in the real world, not just on the spec sheet.

Built for business, not browsing

Imagine a workspace free from digital clutter and distractions. The Thinvent Uno is your dedicated command centre, designed from the ground up for focused industrial and commercial tasks. Its clean, integrated design saves valuable desk space and eliminates the tangle of separate components, while the robust construction is ready for long shifts in demanding environments.

Why it's the smart choice for your operations

- Unwavering reliability: With Ubuntu Linux and no unnecessary wireless radios, it delivers a stable, secure, and bloat-free experience day in, day out.

- Connect what matters: Dual Gigabit Ethernet ports ensure rock-solid, high-speed network connections for critical data transfer and machine control.
- Adapts to your team: The height-adjustable stand lets every user find their perfect, ergonomic viewing angle, promoting comfort and productivity.
- Simplify your setup: The all-in-one design with a crisp 21.5" display gets you up and running faster, with fewer points of failure and a professional, streamlined appearance.

Choose the Thinvent Uno. It's the dependable, no-nonsense computing solution that puts reliability and functionality first.
