Command your operations from a single, streamlined hub.

Introducing the Thinvent® Uno All-in-One PC: engineered to simplify and strengthen your industrial workspace. Forget complex setups and bulky towers—this sleek, integrated unit consolidates your essential computing into one reliable, space-saving solution. It's built for the demands of the shop floor, not just the office.

Perfect for mission-critical environments

- Deploy as a ruggedised kiosk for factory data entry or process monitoring.
- Serve as the dependable nerve centre for machinery control or quality inspection stations.

- Operate flawlessly in controlled environments where simplicity and wired reliability are paramount.

Why choose the Uno All-in-One?

Its dual Ethernet ports ensure unwavering network connectivity for vital systems, while the pop-up camera maintains security when not in use. The robust, fixed stand and durable housing offer steadfast performance day in, day out. This is no-fuss computing, designed to work hard so your business can, too.

Consolidate. Command. Continue without compromise.
