Engineered for the essential tasks, designed for the demanding day.

A seamless hub for your core operations

Imagine a streamlined workstation that conquers clutter without compromise. The Thinvent Uno All-in-One PC integrates everything into one sleek, space-saving unit. Its crisp 21.5" display presents clear visuals for monitoring, menus, or client information, keeping your team focused and efficient. Dual LAN ports offer vital network redundancy or the ability to manage separate networks from a single, tidy desk.

Built for reliability where it matters most

From the bustling factory floor to the busy retail counter, this computer is built to perform. The robust, all-metal construction ensures durability in active environments. With a fanless design for silent operation and wide operating tolerances, it delivers steadfast performance without the fuss. The versatile connectivity handles peripherals with ease, making it the dependable heart of your point-of-sale, digital signage, or light industrial application.

Simplify your setup, secure your space

Get up and running faster with a single-cable power solution that eliminates bulky power supplies. The integrated Kensington lock slot provides a simple, physical layer of security for your asset. Offering the flexibility to install your preferred operating system, the Uno is the blank canvas for your specific software needs, ready to become the backbone of your daily workflow.
