Brilliantly reliable right where you need it.

Escape the clutter of a traditional PC without losing any of its power.

The Thinvent Uno 21.5" All-in-One is engineered for the hardest-working retail counters, self-service kiosks, and professional workstations. Forget hidden towers weaving a mess of cables—simplify your installation with a streamlined, all-purpose unit that mounts easily onto any fixed workspace.

Waste no time second-guessing hardware that lets the team down. With its Gen 2 HDMI and VGA ports working in concert, your cashless payment cameras or patient management wing displays become one smooth set-up, not an aftershock of incompatible cards.

From the checkout to the reception desk—for factory floors needing a screen operator quick-fire, or small business directors outgrowing their laptop—the reliability here costs one careful buy. Staking its fame advantage on ready-at-hand performance with slim easy storage: If front-facing everything draws clients in consistently; longevity keeps your custom thriving hardware from going "one more upgrade needed."

Avoid changing a station when your OS driver load needs broad-clean use for your fixed location every daytime shift.

Look to Uno. It stands smart while the daily footfall gets softer business data turnover one moving rest less year old —there for the loyal serving station system today's store planner accounts the new workplace possible partner.
