Whether you're running a busy front desk, crunching spreadsheets in a back office, or welcoming customers into a retail space, the Uno brings polished performance and genuine practicality to your workspace.

At the heart of this all-in-one is a 13th generation Intel® Core™ i5 processor, delivering the kind of responsive power that makes light work of demanding business applications. Multitasking feels effortless, so you can move between reports, video calls and cloud platforms without a moment's hesitation. Everything happens swiftly, smoothly and calmly – just as a professional workspace should be.

Built with your comfort in mind, the height-adjustable stand lets you find the perfect viewing position in seconds. The generous 23.8" full high-definition display offers wide, vivid viewing angles, so it works beautifully whether you're leaning in for detail or stepping back to share ideas with a colleague.
